

Job Announcement
Full-time Physical Therapist Position with Equity Potential

Arlington, VA

A dynamic physical therapist-owned and operated clinic is seeking a full-time physical therapist to join a collaborative team of outstanding, multi-disciplinary clinicians. 100% Cash practice with strong potential for profit-sharing. Enjoy one-hour treatment sessions in a hypothesis-oriented, evidence-based treatment environment that focuses on manual therapy and neuromuscular re-education. Experience in manual therapy; Pilates, yoga or other movement therapies; and an OCS a plus. Self-directed, creative, team-player a necessity.

Body Dynamics, Inc. is a community of progressive professionals committed to innovative, exceptional care. We integrate physical therapy, Pilates, personal and athletic training, massage therapy, and acupuncture to create rehabilitation, fitness, and health programs that are individualized for clients of all ages and abilities with new or chronic conditions.

Our specialty areas include manual therapy, performing arts medicine, women's health, running and golf, and chronic conditions.
